~ ~ Welcome to the Hotel Strasburg ~ ~

The Hotel Strasburg, originally built as a private hospital in 1902, became well-known for lodging & dining in the Shenandoah Valley in the early Twentieth Century. Restored to Victorian elegance in 1987, its guest register reflects a truly cosmopolitan parade of visitors from across the nation & around the world.

Keeping with local hospitality, the Hotel keeps the unoccupied hotel rooms open for patrons who are curious to view the furnishings & appointments.

We are devoted to being an exemplary host. We expect our freshly-prepared food to be served with the courtesy & attention that you, our honored guests, deserve. Any suggestions that you believe will help us hold to that high standard will be greatly appreciated & gratefully accepted.

We thank you for your patronage & we hope you will visit with us again soon.
